GUIDING PRINCIPLE

The guiding principle is that the remuneration and the other terms of employment should effectively help in attracting and retaining committed and competent personnel. The following are the guiding principles in formulating the remuneration policy:

- To ensure that the level and components of remuneration is reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate Directors, KMP and other employees of the quality required to run the Company successfully.
- No director/KMP/ other employee is involved in deciding his or her own remuneration.
- The trend prevalent in the similar industry, nature and size of business is kept in view and given due weightage to arrive at a competitive quantum of remuneration.
- It is to be ensured that relationship of remuneration to the performance is clear & meets appropriate performance benchmarks which are unambiguously laid down and communicated.
- Improved performance should be rewarded by increase in remuneration and suitable authority for value addition in future.
- Remuneration packages should strike a balance between fixed and incentive pay, where applicable, reflecting short and long term performance objectives appropriate to the Company's working and goals.
- Following criteria are also to be considered:-
 - Responsibilities and duties ;
 - Time & efforts devoted;
 - Value addition;
 - Profitability of the Company & growth of its business;
 - Analyzing each and every position and skills for fixing the remuneration yardstick.
 - Standards for certain functions where there is a scarcity of qualified resources.
 - Ensuring tax efficient remuneration structures.
 - Ensuring that remuneration structure is simple and that the cost to the Company (CTC) is not shown inflated and the effective take home remuneration is not low.
 - Other criteria as may be applicable.
- Consistent application of remuneration parameters across the organisation.
- Provisions of law with regard making payment of remuneration, as may be applicable, are complied.
- Whenever, there is any deviation from the Policy, the justification /reasons should also be indicated / disclosed adequately.
- Industry practices and cost of living are also taken into consideration.

DIRECTORS

As per the Policy followed by the Company since inception the Non-Executive Directors including Independent Directors are paid remuneration in the form of sitting fees for attending Board and Committee meetings as fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time subject to statutory provisions.

Remuneration of Whole Time Directors including Managing Director reflects the overall remuneration philosophy and guiding principle of the Company. When considering the appointment and remuneration of Whole Time Directors, the Nomination & Remuneration Committee considers pay and employment conditions in the industry, merit and seniority of the person and the paying capacity of the Company.

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee while designing the remuneration package considers the level and composition of remuneration to be reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate the person to ensure the quality required to run the company successfully.

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee while considering a remuneration package must ensure a balance between fixed and performance linked variable pay reflecting short and long term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the company and its goals.

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee considers that a successful Remuneration Policy must ensure that some part of the remuneration package is linked to the achievement of corporate performance targets and a strong alignment of interest with stakeholders.

The term of office and remuneration of Whole Time Directors are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, shareholders and the limits laid down under the Companies Act from time to time.

REWARD PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES

The Company's Remuneration Policy is guided by a reward framework and set of principles and objectives as more fully and particularly envisaged under section 178 of the Companies Act 2013, inter alia principles pertaining to determining qualifications, positive attributes, integrity and independence etc.

REWARD POLICIES

Remuneration packages for Whole Time Directors are designed subject to the limits laid down under the Companies Act, 2013 to remunerate them fairly and responsibly.

The Whole Time Directors' remuneration comprises of salary, perquisites and performance-based commission/ reward apart from retirement benefits like P.F., Superannuation, Gratuity, etc as per Rules of the Company.

Remuneration also aims to motivate personnel to deliver Company's key business strategies, create a strong performance-oriented environment and reward achievement of meaningful targets over the short and long-term.

The Whole Time Directors are entitled to customary non-monetary benefits such as company cars, furnished accommodation, health care benefits, leave travel, communication facilities, etc. Their terms of appointment provide for severance payments as per the Companies Act.

KEY MANAGERIAL PERSONNEL AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT

Appointment of Key Managerial Personnel & Senior Management and cessation of their service are subject to the approval of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors. Remuneration of Key Managerial Personnel and other Senior Management personnel is decided by the Managing Director or such other Executive Director who is responsible for appointment of such Key Managerial and other Senior Management Personnel, broadly based on the Remuneration Policy in respect of Whole Time Directors. Total remuneration comprises of:

1. A fixed base salary - set at a level aimed at attracting and retaining executives with professional and personal competence, showing good performance towards achieving Company goals.
2. Perquisites – in the form of house rent allowance/ accommodation, furnishing allowance, reimbursement of medical expenses, conveyance, telephone expenses, leave travel, etc.
3. Retirement benefits - contribution to PF, superannuation, gratuity, etc. as per Company Rules.

4. Motivation /Reward - A performance appraisal is carried out annually and promotions/ increments/ rewards are decided by Managing Director or such other Executive Director who is responsible for appointment of such Key Managerial and other Senior Management Personnel.
5. Severance payments - in accordance with terms of employment, and applicable statutory requirements, if any.

OTHER EMPLOYEES

The remuneration of other employees is fixed from time to time as per the guiding principles outlined above and considering industry standards and cost of living. In addition to basic salary they are also provided perquisites and retirement benefits as per schemes of the Company and statutory requirements, where applicable. Policies of motivation/ reward/ severance payments are applicable to this category of personnel as in the case of those in the management cadre.

EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTIONS:

In addition to the above the Directors (including whole-time and non-executive Directors), Key Managerial Personnel, Other Senior Managerial Personnel and other employees are eligible to receive the stock options, subject to the provisions of applicable laws and regulations.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION
